OUR TRAMS

Significant indeed is the fact of the running this morning of the lower level trams. The moral effect on the Chinese community cannot be denied. It is acting as a tonic. Little knots of people at street corners watch the successful running of the cars with keen interest. The Manager of the Tramway Company, who was noticed in charge of one of the cars, and those who are assisting in this most effective measure of counteracting the action of the men who, of the workers, were the first to "down tools," are to be heartily congratulated on what they are doing. With reasonable care there should be no breakdowns. Those who live in the Eastern portion of the city have now no possible sort of complaint on the ground of effective transport arrangements. In this respect the initiative of the Hotel Co., with its bus service, should not pass without recognition.

Whilst the centre of the town may suggest an air of unreality, it is in other parts that "Business as Usual" may be said to be very much in evidence. This morning coolies were noticed cleaning the tram-lines to make progress of the cars more easy. The motor-breakdown equipment was seen to be in charge of Chinese. But perhaps best of all, was the sight of the reclamation workers going about their lawful occupations as if nothing unusual was happening.

in evidence. Rubour predicts that pay day, or the early days of next month may cause another complexion on affairs. But this is meeting trouble half way. Outward evidence is wholly favourable and points to the fact that there are workers willing to carry out their allotted tasks.

The topic of conversation continues to be the document said to have been signed by seventeen members of the staff of the Canton Christian College, and the retraction made by the Rev. A. Baxter. It is the manner of the document to which strong exception is taken. There is general agreement with the words of a correspondent to our senior morning contemporary "that it casts serious reflection upon the standard of ability and intelligence of the general body of missionaries, and can be used by opponents to belittle missionaries." And, it may be added, their work. The matter which has caused so much unfavourable comment can only be regarded as an anti-British feeling on the part of those who, by the nature of their calling, should be above any semblance of what may be termed politics, and should be actuated at least by charitable feelings. The absence of disclaimers from the other signatories to the document is disturbing.

Quietly and methodically, meritorious work is being done by such men as Dr. T'sao. Let it not be forgotten that this is no spectacular effort, but a natural consequence of years of hard work in the best interests of all classes in the Colony, particularly Chinese. Dr. T'sao is this has not been slow to venture opinions of the uplifting work of the British Government and his firm belief in the best that is to be found in British education and customs. His work for so many years in educational and other matters bears this out. It is in other parts that "Business as Usual" may be said to be very much in evidence. This morning coolies were noticed cleaning the tram-lines to make progress of the cars more easy. The motor-breakdown equipment was seen to be in charge of Chinese. But perhaps best of all, was the sight of the reclamation workers going about their lawful occupations as if nothing unusual was happening.

NO UNITS FROM INDIA

Singapore, June 29.

It is reported that the British Government has decided not to send any more units from India to the Shanghai area.

SHANGHAI ARREST

Soviet Agent Charged

(Reuter's Service)

Shanghai, June 29.

Dossier and Mr. Sife were charged at the Mixed Court today with possession of literature liable to cause a breach of the peace, and with being undesirable and a menace to the peace and good order of the settlement.

The police prosecutor described the accused as agents of the Soviet Government.

Documents found on the accused included one from Russia "Strikes at Canton excellent for Russian trade with Canton." Another cable acknowledged the receipt of sixty thousand gold roubles for the purpose of "fighting imperialism."

Dossier alleged the inflammatory papers were given to him in a sealed package for delivery to certain persons. He accused the police of having been actuated by motives of vengeance against him. He alleged his wife knew nothing of the documents. Dossier was released on bail of $20,000. His wife was made to sign a bond guaranteeing her further appearance on Friday.

STRONG PROTEST

(Reuter's Service.)

Peking, June 29.

The British Note to the Chinese Government on the Kiangsi riot of June 18 protests in the strongest terms against the outrage and reserves the right to demand full reparation for all damage done and an apology for the insult to the British flag.

JAPAN AND CHINA

Tokyo, June 29.

It is authoritatively felt that Japan is not likely to intervene in China. The general tone is sympathetic and it is believed the situation will calm slowly.

STUDENT DEMANDS

(Reuter's Service.)

Peking, June 29.

A students' meeting yesterday decided to hold demonstration and parade tomorrow regarding the Shamen affair. The meeting also passed a resolution thanking the Russian students for their telegram of sympathy, also deciding to lodge a protest with the French Minister regarding the expulsion of Chinese students from France, to ask Dr. C. C. Wu for his version of the Shamen affair and to wire the Yunnan Government enquiring its attitude to the Shanghai affair.

FORCES FOR MACAO

(Reuter's Service.)

Lisbon, June 29.

Owing to the anti-foreign agitation in China, two warships and a transport with troops and munitions will be sent to Macao from Portugal.

It is reported that a force of native troops may also be sent from Moambique.

CANTON. Tension in Canton is relaxing and situation is generally quiet. Nothing further to report.

KONGMUN. Nothing to report.

WUCHOW. Situation unchanged.

SWATOW. Situation unchanged.

HOIHOW. Situation much improved.

Mr. G. Duclos has received the following:—

"Sir, I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of the letter signed by the members of the American Community in this Colony and to thank them through you, an expression of the thanks of the Government for their action in this matter."

Yours, etc.,

SHANGHAI TENSE

To Go to Customs

THE SUPPLY

The news from Shanghai yesterday was less than yesterday.

The food situation there gives little anxiety for the present. The have placed the services of Crawford, Ltd. and the Dairy Farm for the transshipment of supplies for Canton to the boats. Yesterday the Tung On was lying off the Naval Yard and supplies were still being taken aboard.

The Navy is, however, not responsible for running the boats to Canton, this being done by their respective owners.

Most of the Chinese owners are now anticipating regular runs again to Canton although some of the boats are still lying idle through the fears of their owners of Kongmoon pirating, that district, it is reported, being in a very disturbed condition.

The s.s. Paul Beau did not leave for Canton on Sunday as it was due, owing to the defection of the crew. Another crew is being signed on and it is anticipated that the boat will leave shortly.

Two Macao boats have left over the week-end in spite of the difficulties that have been encountered in landing there.

APPEAL TO LORDS.

U.S. MILLIONAIRE AND SUPER-TAX.

Raised for the first time in the House of Lords, questions relative to the position of absentee shareholders in British companies in respect of super-tax were further argued in the case Harry Payne Whitney v. The Commissioners of Inland Revenue. Mr. Whitney, a New York millionaire, and his wife, a daughter of Cornelius Vanderbilt, held shares in a company carrying on business in the United Kingdom. The dividends were assessed to income tax, and a form was sent by registered post to Mr. Whitney in New York requiring a return of income for super-tax—a demand with which he did not comply.

In the absence of a return the Special Commissioners made assessments for super-tax of £90,000 for each of the years 1918 to 1921. Notices of assessment were sent to Mr. Whitney in New York; on appeal the Special Commissioners confirmed them, and later they were affirmed by Mr. Justice Rowlatt and by the Court of Appeal. Mr. Whitney then appealed to the House of Lords.

His leading counsel, Sir John Simon, K.C., said he was a non-resident in the United Kingdom in the most absolute sense, and maintained that he was not liable to be charged or assessed to super-tax.

NO POWER OR JURISDICTION.

Sir John submitted that a non-resident could be lawfully assessed to super-tax only—if at all—in the name of a trustee, guardian, committee, factor, or agent, and not in his own name; that the Special Commissioners had no power or jurisdiction to serve notices to Mr. Whitney out of the United Kingdom; and that he was not bound to comply.

Lord Dunedin said he did not see how they could get a tax from an absentee except that which was tapped at the source.

Sir John Simon said he did not dispute that the Act might affect a person carrying on business through an agent here. Such a person, though not resident, was represented by his agent.

Lord Carson said the question was whether he was within the jurisdiction, and so liable to assessment.

Sir Douglas Hogg, K.C. (Attorney-General), opened the case for the Crown with submissions that the assessments to super-tax were rightly made upon Mr. Whitney. The fact that a person to whom profits accrued was not resident in the United Kingdom did not affect the chargeability of the profits. Non-resident persons were expressly brought within the scope of income tax in respect of profits arising from sources within the United Kingdom, as was shown in the language of both Schedule D and of Section 41 of the Income Tax Act, 1842.

You can't afford to take chances. There are too many others doing it for your own safety as matters stand.

Mr. Carson said he could give you the thrills that any speeding ambulance stands ready to give you any day.

A wise driver considers his brakes of chief importance before he starts off for the day, and then forgets them. Vice versa for the average.

Contrary to the old maxim, what a motorist doesn't see is invariably what does hurt him.

OUTWARDLY QUIET

Strike at Canton

Continues

"NO FIRING"

The following statement of the latest developments at Canton and Shamen is issued by the Colonial Secretary:—

Since the firing at Canton and the attack on Shamen on Tuesday June 23, in which 4 British were wounded, 1 Frenchman killed, 1 Frenchman wounded, 3 Japanese wounded, 37 Chinese killed and 70 wounded, Canton has been outwardly quiet, and no firing of any sort has taken place.

The strike continues and all Chinese have left Shamen.

A number of Indian soldiers have been sent to Shamen to protect the foreigners from further molestation. No soldiers were present when the attack took place.

The following British gunboats are present at Canton, H. M. Ships Tarantula, Cicale, Moth and Robin, beside several foreign gunboats.

H. M. Consul General at Canton and the Cantonese Commissioner for Foreign Affairs are in communication concerning the incident certain of which correspondence has already been published.

All is now quiet in Canton and there is nothing further to report.

MR. COOLIDGE, SENR.

(Reuter's American Service.)

Plymouth (Vt.), June 29.

Mr. Coolidge senior has been successfully operated on and his condition is satisfactory.

JOCKEY'S CRASH

(Reuter's Service.)

Paris, June 29.

Steve Donoghue is resting quietly. He is expected to be able to get up in a few days and to proceed to London at the weekend. The fractured bone has been satisfactorily set and no fever is present.

SILK SHIPMENT

The Silk which left here by the P. & O. s. s. Morea on the 30th May was delivered in Marseilles on the 27th June, a transit of 28 days.

Market Day in Florence.

In the Piazza Signoria they found themselves jammed in a huge, gesticulating, heaving throng, who jostled and swore and laughed. Farmers in heavy red homespun coats, with yellow fur collars turned up to their noses; women with loudly-protesting chickens tucked away under their arms; business men vainly trying to pass, pushing and thrusting with their shoulders; children scrambling in and out or dodging in front of the slowly-moving horses. "E-o-o yup!" Crack! Crack! "E-o-o yup!" "E-o-o yup!" from the impatient drivers. The dusk, when it fell, was a thing of beauty, calm and very translucent. It came to Florence from the outlying hills, from the still more distant mountains. A tinge of afterglow lingered round it, like a smile on a thoughtful face. It cast its spell over people and buildings, mellowing, blending, welding together, melting them into its lovely whole, making them part of itself. The huge crowd still rocked from side to side, but its laughter seemed to have grown softer. It was slowly dispersing down the hillside, straggling in the distance, and three into the neighbouring Tractor. Farmers and their wives climbed into ancient carts, with crates of fowls tucked away under their seats. "Avanti!" Crack! Crack! "Avanti!" "E-o-o yup!" The spell of the dusk had lifted. Dogs, long imprisoned in the crowd, barked their freedom. A child began to wail. Some girls, arm in arm, strolled along the Piazza, bareheaded. The Piazza was gradually finding itself again, stretching its arms in relief. A star came out over the Palazzo Vecchio. It looked like a point of very light steel pricking the evening sky. Some clouds still faintly tinged with pink, sailed slowly behind the open arches of the lower town. From "A Saturday Life."

NORTH CHINA ITEMS

(Reuter's Service)

Shanghai June 29.

On the arrival of the P. and O. s.s. Mantua at Shanghai this morning two Russians, Dosset and his wife, suspected Bolsheviks, were arrested. The couple left here for Hongkong a few days ago en route to Canton to take charge of the interests of a Soviet oil syndicate.

The Hongkong Police refused them permission to land. They were sent back to Shanghai, where they were searched and a quantity of Bolshevik literature found on them. They will be charged at the Mixed Court to-day.

Two hundred and thirty-four White Russians left here for Hongkong on Sunday by the Empress of Canada, replacing the Chinese crew of the Empress of Canada. Some will also replace the crew of the Empress of Asia at Hongkong.

White Russians are also employed at the Shanghai Water Works.

The labour situation at Shanghai has been continued stone throwing at tramcars and omnibuses. Unharmful fluids have been thrown at tram drivers and passengers.

At Hoihow demonstrations have been more violent and the position is most acute.

Students are pouring in and stirring up trouble. The British submarine L.33 has arrived there.

At Foochow, in consequence of rumours of an attack on the cable station the British Consul requested protection from the Military Governor which was granted.

At Chungking the situation is daily becoming worse and hostile feeling against the Japanese is especially high.

All Japanese living in the city were evacuated by the steamers Toba, Yueyang and Teyang at midnight on Sunday.

Defeated soldiers with arms and ammunition are agitating and joining the rioters.

HOME ADVICE

The diplomatic correspondent of The Daily Telegraph urges the abandonment of the idea of excluding the British and Japanese representatives from the Peking negotiations "or what happened in Turkey will probably be repeated in China—namely the Powers will be discredited by their weakness and failure to present an united front to a common peril and attack."

The correspondent points out that France now stands with Britain and Japan among the affronted Powers, while the Americans have also been involved in the recent firings.

STRONG BRITISH PROTEST

Peking, June 29.
The British Note, sent to the Chinese Government on June 24th in connection with the riot at Kia-kiang on June 13th protests strongly against the outrages.

The British Government reserves the right to demand full reparation for all damage done, and to demand an apology for the insult to the British flag.

PERSONNEL FOR CONFERENCE

Peking June 29.
It is understood that Mr. Shen Jui Lin (the Foreign Minister) is calling upon Signor Cerruti (the Italian Minister) to-morrow when it is expected that he will officially notify Signor Cerruti of the Chinese personnel for the conference to discuss Shanghai incidents whose names have not yet been officially notified to the Powers despite the mandate issued on the subject.

The Powers' delegates have not yet been officially announced. The Powers' negotiators have not been announced either.

The Chinese desire the opening meeting to be on July 1st.

PARADE IN TIENTSIN

Tientsin, June 29.
Students are demonstrating in Tientsin to-morrow.

Permission has been granted by Li Ching Lin, who first informed the Consuls that he had refused permission for demonstrations.

Later the students approached him and pleaded to be allowed a procession, which was granted. Li Ching Lin has informed the authorities that demonstrations will be restricted to the native city and not allowed to approach the Concessions.

A strong force of police will stand by to deal with emergencies.

It is noteworthy that the Chamber of Commerce is taking no part in the demonstration. The Chamber of Commerce is taking no part in the demonstration. The Chamber of Commerce is taking no part in the demonstration.

ASIA SAILS

Crew Arrives from Shanghai

The s.s. Empress of Canada which arrived at Hongkong to-day was due yesterday, the delay, the "China Mail" understands being due to a cable having been despatched from Hongkong to Shanghai asking the officers in charge to see to the engaging of a spare crew there and their passage to Hongkong.

The spare crew is, of course for the Empress of Asia which has been delayed here for four days. Each day it has been thought possible that a start could be made but the lack of firemen proved the obstacle on each occasion. As has already been reported, college masters, students and even lady missionaries have volunteered for work as stewards, engineers of varying capacities, greasers etc., contracts having in fact been signed.

The services of these volunteers who are still minded to make the trip will be retained and the deficiency made up from the crew which the Canada has brought. These consist, in the main, of Russians.

None of the crew of the Canada are southern Chinese and it is anticipated that she will leave at scheduled time on Thursday for Manila.

STRIKE ITEMS

A fairly regular twenty minute service is being maintained by the "Star" ferry under the guidance of the navy men who have stepped into the breach.

Between Saturday and today the following workers have gone on strike: naval yard crews and launchers; Sanitary Board launchers; furniture makers; motor boats; silversmiths; clog makers; Connaught Aerated Water Factory; tea-box makers; M. Y. San's; all tea houses; imports and exports guilds' coolies.

The cloakroom boys of the Hongkong Hotel returned to work yesterday.

Several houseboys and amahs who had returned to work are reported to have left again the service of their employers.
